Llwybr Rhaeadr Ewynnol Swallow Falls Walk

UCHAFBWYNTIAU

Gweld y rhaeadrau ar ôl glaw trwm, a'r golygfeydd o Foel Siabod a Phedol yr Wyddfa ar ddiwrnod clir.

O'r maes parcio, dilynwch y llwybr sy'n disgyn drwy'r coetir. Daw sŵn yr afon yn uwch wrth ichi agosáu at Rhaeadr Ewynnol. Ymhellach ar hyd y ffordd, mae'r llwybr yn culhau rhwng clogwyn bach a chwymp wedi'i ffensio i lawr i'r afon cyn dechrau dringo'n serth drwy'r goedwig i olygfann arall uwchben y dyffryn, gyda golygfeydd o Foel Siabod ac, ar ddiwrnod clir, Pedol yr Wyddfa. Oddi yma, mae'r llwybr yn dringo'n ysgafn yn ôl i'r maes parcio.

HIGHLIGHTS

Experiencing the falls after heavy rain, and the views of Moel Siabod and the Snowdon Horseshoe on a clear day.

From the carpark, follow the descending path through the woodland. The sound of the river gets louder as you approach Swallow Falls. Further along, the path narrows between a small cliff and a fenced drop down to the river before starting to climb steeply through the wood to another viewpoint above the valley, with views of Moel Siabod, and in clear weather, the Snowdon Horseshoe. From here, it's a gentle climb back to the carpark.

Description: A circular route starting from Tŷ'n Llwyn car park. This trail is mainly on steep rough narrow paths less than 70cm wide in some places, on unmade and uneven surfaces, where you can expect mud, rocks and tree roots. There are several flights of steps on the trail and a bench at the waterfall where you can rest and admire the view. There is a wheelchair accessible picnic table in the car park.
